Speak to our Patient & Family

Representative, Christina Garnaut

Christina is a volunteer. Depending on the Covid situation, Christina visits in person or “visits” by phone so that you can chat about your experience and share your feedback with the hospital – if you’d like.

Christina passes on feedback and any suggestions to help improve our care for you and our future patient and families.

If you’ve not heard from Christina and you’d like to speak, please ask a staff member.

About Christina

I am passionate about healthcare and patient experience.

After previous volunteering in hospitals, I realised how important it is to advocate for the needs of patients and their families. Sharing feedback with staff does make a difference.

When I’m not volunteering, I work in medical research, spend time with family and friends, and love trying out new recipes!
