

SA Dialysis Activity Dashboard 2023

*Notional capacity is the number of people who can be treated in a facility under typical conditions of 2 shifts per day, 3 days per week. In some locations staff shortages mean the actual capacity is less than this.

These numbers are ambulant patients only. For RAH (acute), FMC, LMHS and WCHN there is an additional load of hospital inpatients