

STOP THE FLU BEFORE IT STOPS YOU

Under the National Immunisation Program, free flu vaccinations are available to:

- children 6 months to less than 5 years of age
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people 6 months and older
- pregnant people (any trimester)
- people aged 65 years and older
- people 6 months of age or older with underlying chronic medical conditions.

visit sahealth.sa.gov.au/flu

Government of South Australia
SA Health