List of Directors/Controlling Officers for a Restricted Ambulance Service

Under the Health Care Act 2008, when assessing an application for a restricted ambulance service licence, or licence renewal, the Minister must be satisfied of the fitness and propriety of all directors or other officers of a body corporate, including elected office bearers of an incorporated association, who do, or may, exercise control over a restricted ambulance service licence holder's operations.

Name of Restricted Ambulance Service:
Address of Restricted Ambulance Service:
Name of licence or certificate holder:
List the names of each director or other officer who exercises control over the Restricted Ambulance Service:

For each director or other officer provide:

- a completed Declaration – Fitness and Propriety; and
- a police check certificate (original or certified copy) issued within the past six months.

If the director or other officer has not been previously notified to the Department or it is a new application, please also provide two professional/business referees.
