COVID-19 UPDATE 30: FRIDAY 1 MAY 2020

SA Medical Imaging to stay in public hands

The future of SA Medical Imaging (SAMI) has been secured with the announcement that it will remain as a single entity in public ownership.

SAMI plays a vital role in South Australia's health system and has worked hard to deliver a more efficient and improved service to the community.

Recovered cases in South Australia

There are currently only 12 active cases on COVID-19 in the state, with 422 people now recovered.

This means 97% of South Australian cases have been cleared of COVID-19.
