Dear [Redacted]

ACCESS TO DOCUMENTS

I refer to your application pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act 1991 (FOI Act) requesting access to:

A copy of – the Report from Lee Gruner of Quality Directions Australia into SALHN mental health services; and – submissions received as part of the review; and documents (including submissions, minutes, emails, letters, notes, presentations) in response to the review.

It has been identified that eleven documents fall within the scope of your request. It has been determined that access to nine of these documents be granted.

Two of the discovered documents are considered to be exempt under schedule 1, clause 17(c) of the FOI Act which states:

17 – Documents subject to contempt etc
A document is an exempt document if it contains matter the public disclosure of which would, but for any immunity of the Crown –
(c) infringe the privilege of Parliament.

The two documents are Parliamentary Briefing Notes. As per parliamentary procedure, these documents are provided to the relevant Minister and are exempt from release into the public domain.

Please note that in accordance with Premier and Cabinet Circular PC045 Disclosure Logs for Non-Personal Information Released through Freedom of Information, it will be necessary to publish on the SA Health Website a summary of your application, this notice of determination (with your details redacted) and a copy of, or link to, the documents released to you.
If you are dissatisfied with this determination you may seek an internal review in accordance with section 29 of the FOI Act by writing to the Chief Executive Officer, Southern Adelaide Local Health Network within 30 (calendar) days after you have received this letter. I have enclosed a copy of 'Your Rights to Review and Appeal' which outlines your review options.

I trust that the enclosed documents will be of assistance to you.

Yours sincerely

Ms M King
