COVID-19 UPDATE 48: TUESDAY 16 JUNE 2020

Border restriction changes

From midnight 16 June 2020, travellers entering South Australia directly from Western Australia, Tasmania and Northern Territory will no longer be required to self-quarantine for 14 days.

For those currently in quarantine who have entered directly from WA, Tasmania and NT can end their quarantine from midnight tonight, regardless of how long they have been in SA.

Travellers entering SA from all other states and territories will still be required to quarantine for 14 days.

Quarantine requirements for other states and territories will be eased on 20 July.

Easing of COVID-19 restrictions for indoor fitness classes

The State Government has also announced that from Friday 19 June 2020:

- > If space only allows for 1 person per 4 square metres, indoor group fitness classes remain limited to 10 people.
- > If space allows for 1 person per 7 square metres, indoor group fitness classes can have up to 20 people
