Separation Packages (TVSP/VSP)

What is a TVSP?

The Cabinet of the Government of South Australia has approved the offering/provision of Targeted Voluntary Separation Packages (TVSPs) to employees who are employed on an ongoing basis and who are, or are imminently to become, excess to the requirements of a public sector agency as a consequence of savings measures and/or organisational changes and who are not transferred to other ongoing public sector employment in a substantive role.

If you have accepted an offer of a TVSP, you will be ineligible to be employed in or engaged by/derive an income from the public sector directly or indirectly during the employment exclusion period that was set as part of your TVSP package.

SA Health has a duty of care to ensure that the risk of harm to clients, patients and the organisation is minimised. As a result, prospective employees are required to undergo a criminal history check through the Department of Human Services (DHS) or National Police Certificate (NPC) as indicated in the Job Pack for this position. An unsatisfactory criminal history check may preclude you from employment.

Please answer the following questions and provide full details in relation to any questions you respond yes to. Answering yes to any questions may not necessarily preclude you from consideration for employment; however, should you not disclose any convictions, charges or employment related disciplinary action, you may, should your application be successful, have your employment terminated if it later comes to the attention of the employer that you have withheld relevant information.

If you have any convictions listed on your NPC, regardless of age or type, please declare.

You are not, however, required to provide detail in respect of certain types of spent convictions except where you are applying for certain types of roles.

A spent conviction is a criminal conviction that lapses either immediately or after a period of time pursuant to the provisions of the Spent Convictions Act 2009.

You are required to provide detail about certain types of spent convictions where you are applying for a role involving interaction with children or certain vulnerable classes of people. Spent Conviction(s) will be recorded on National Police Checks for these types of roles.
