

What do you feel when you think about your own health?

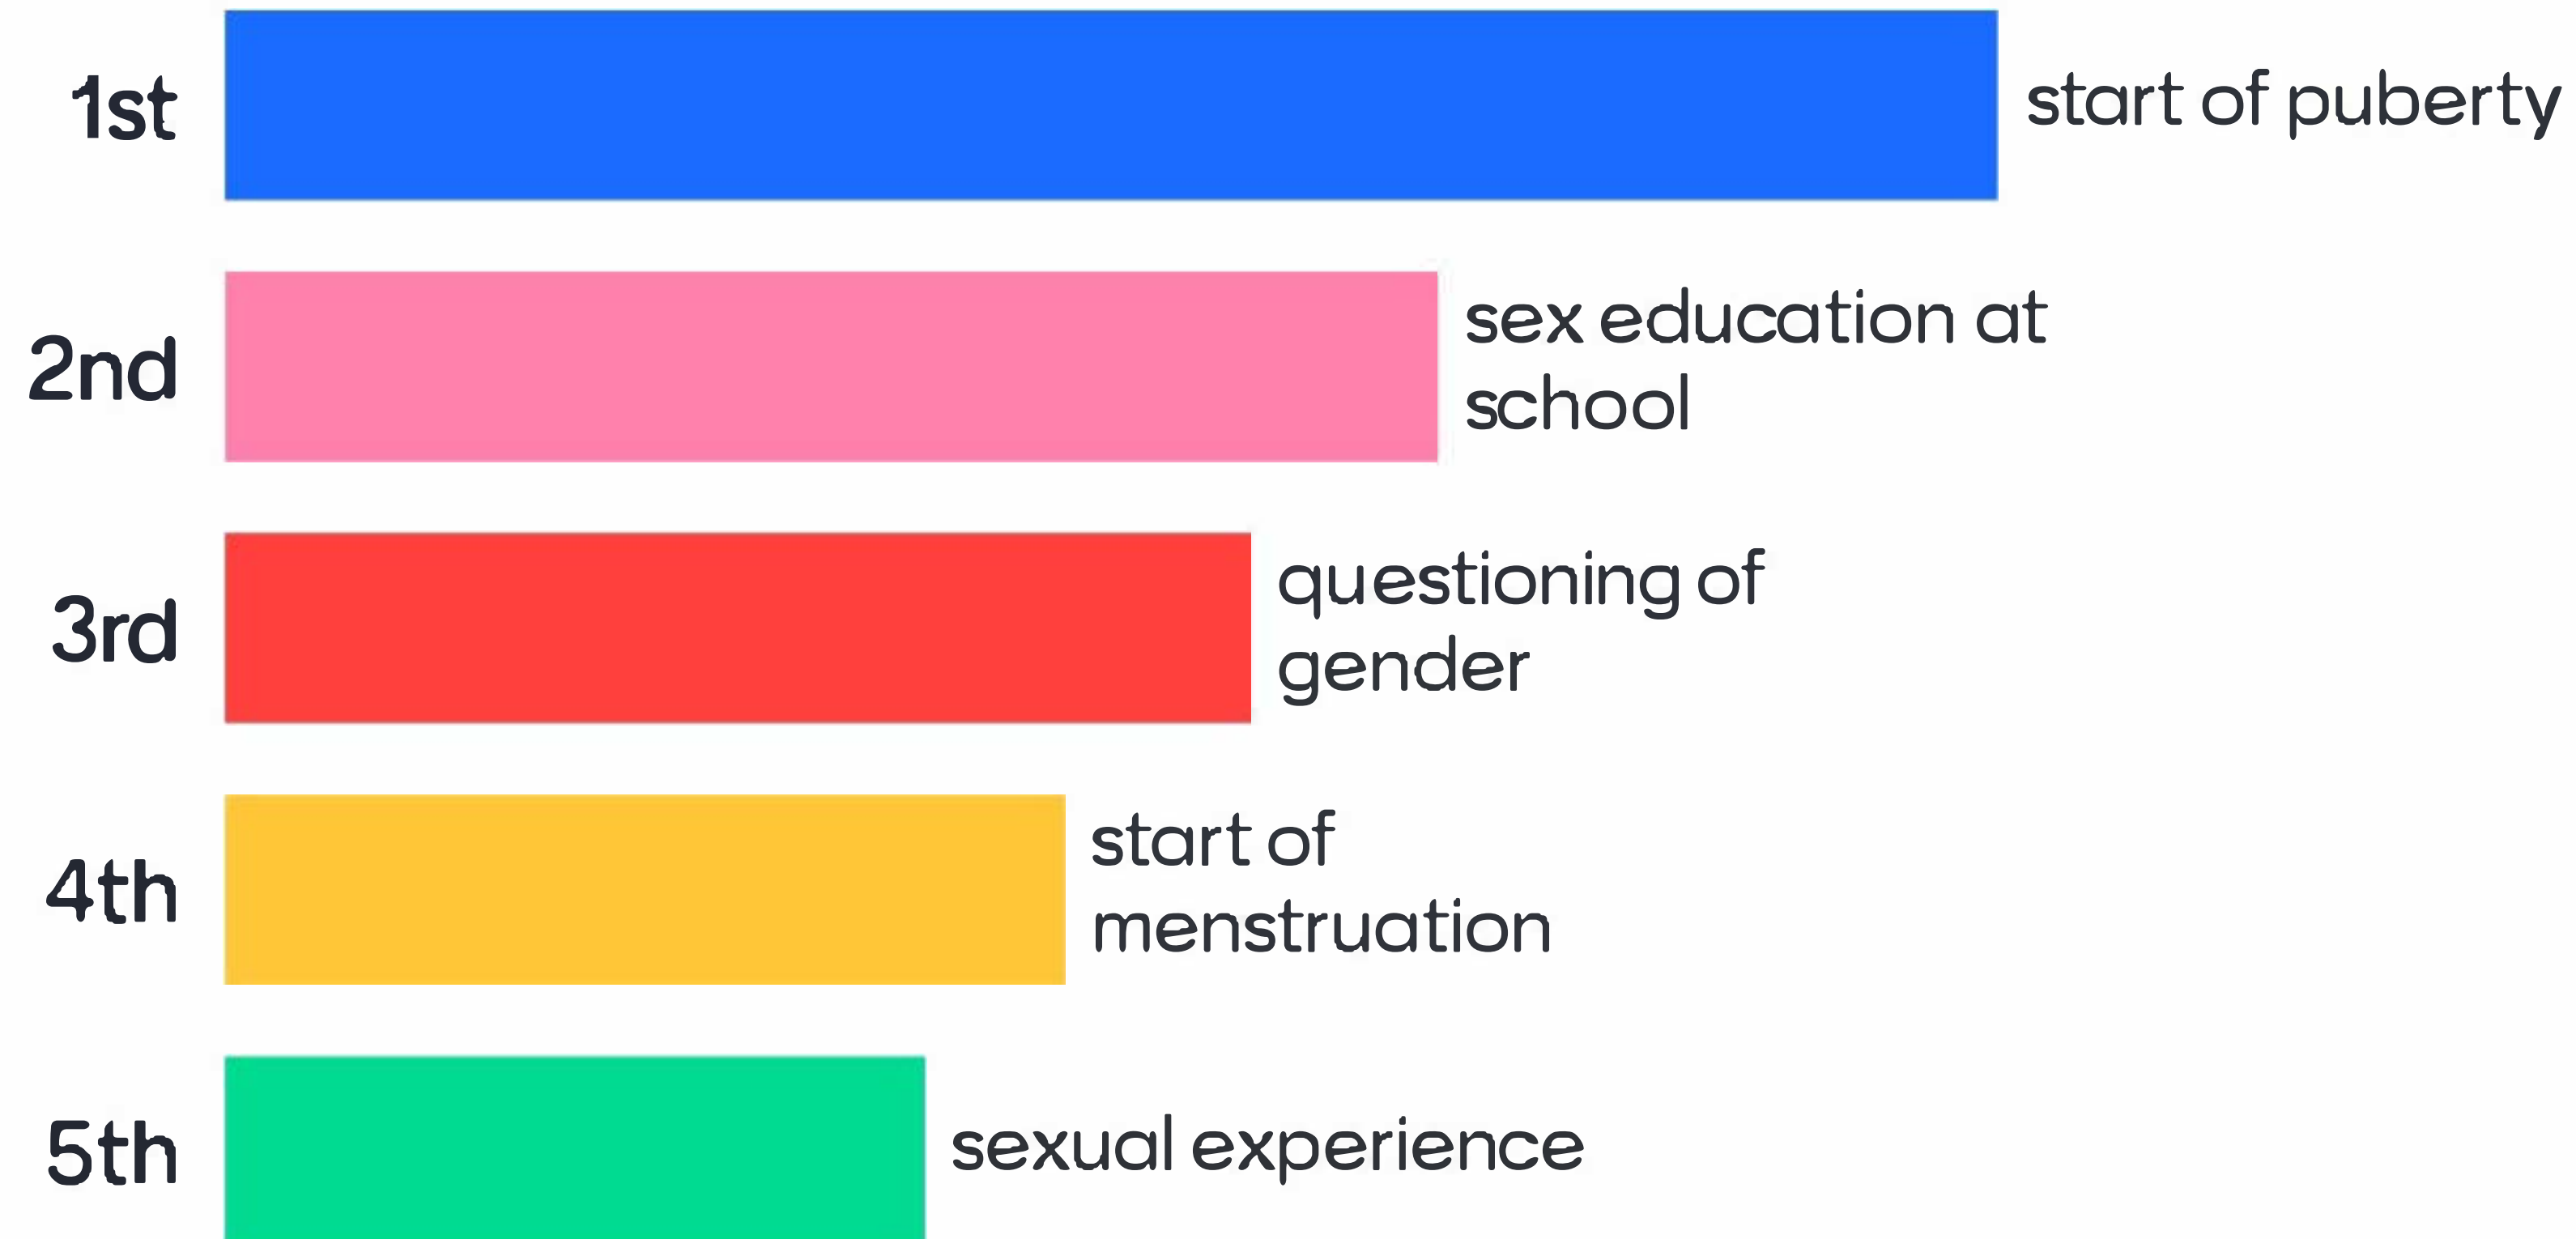

What do you feel when you think about your family's health?

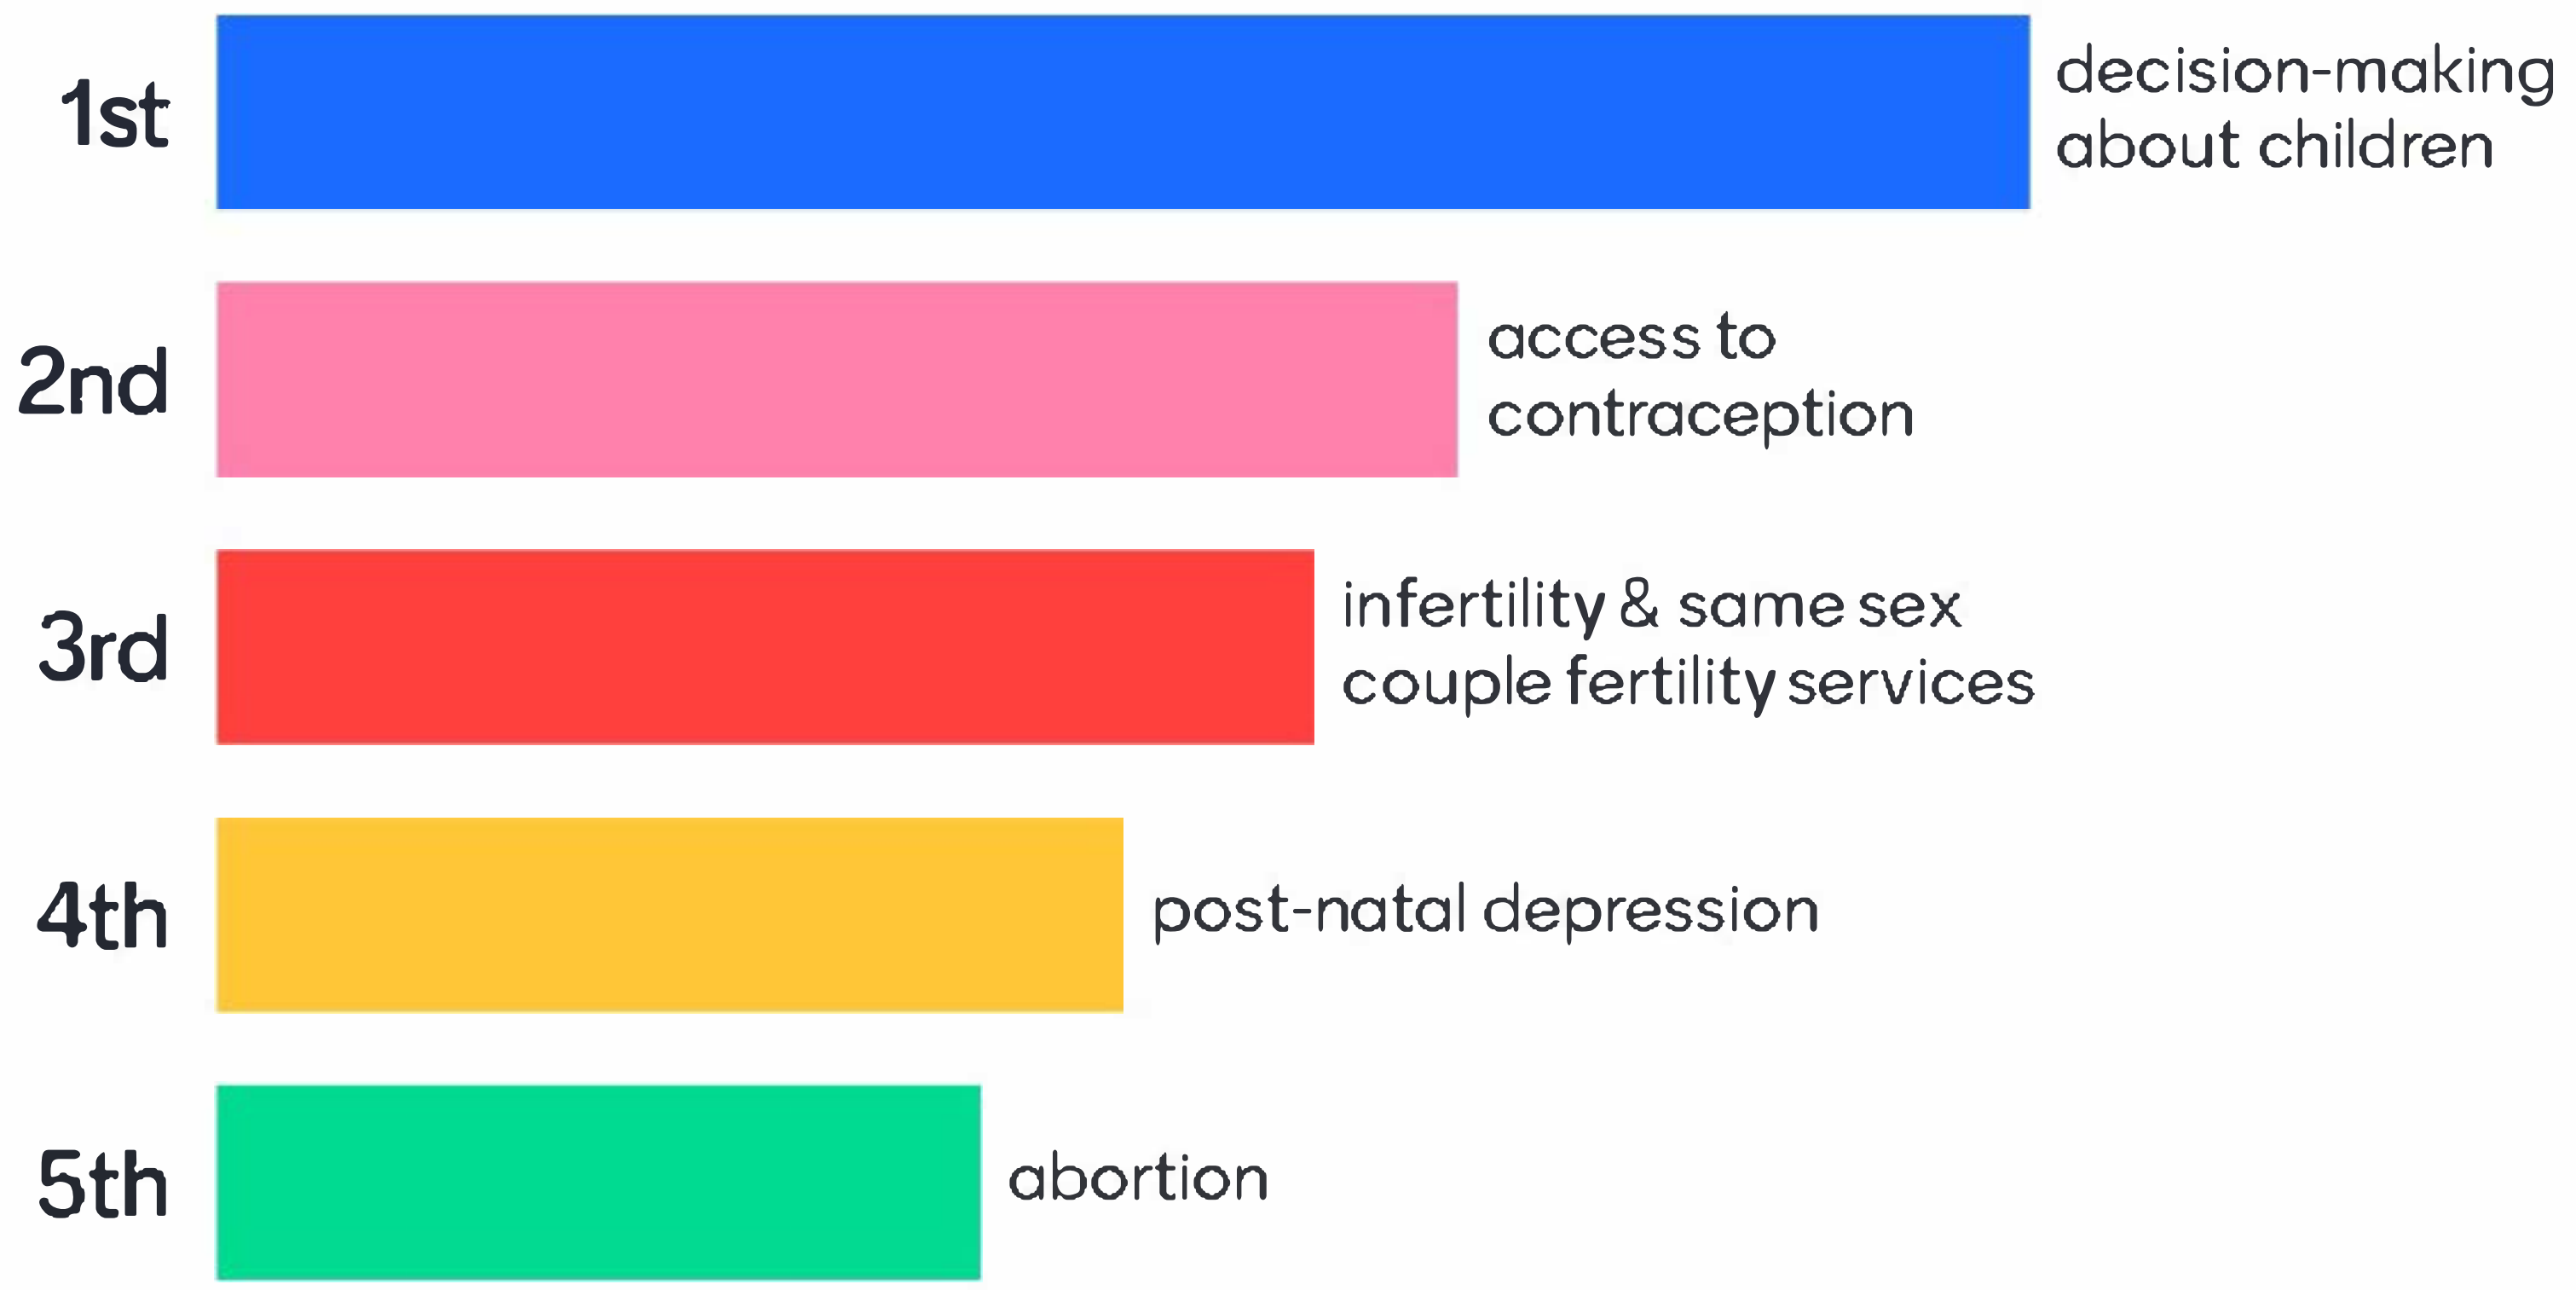

What do you feel when you think about interacting with the health system?

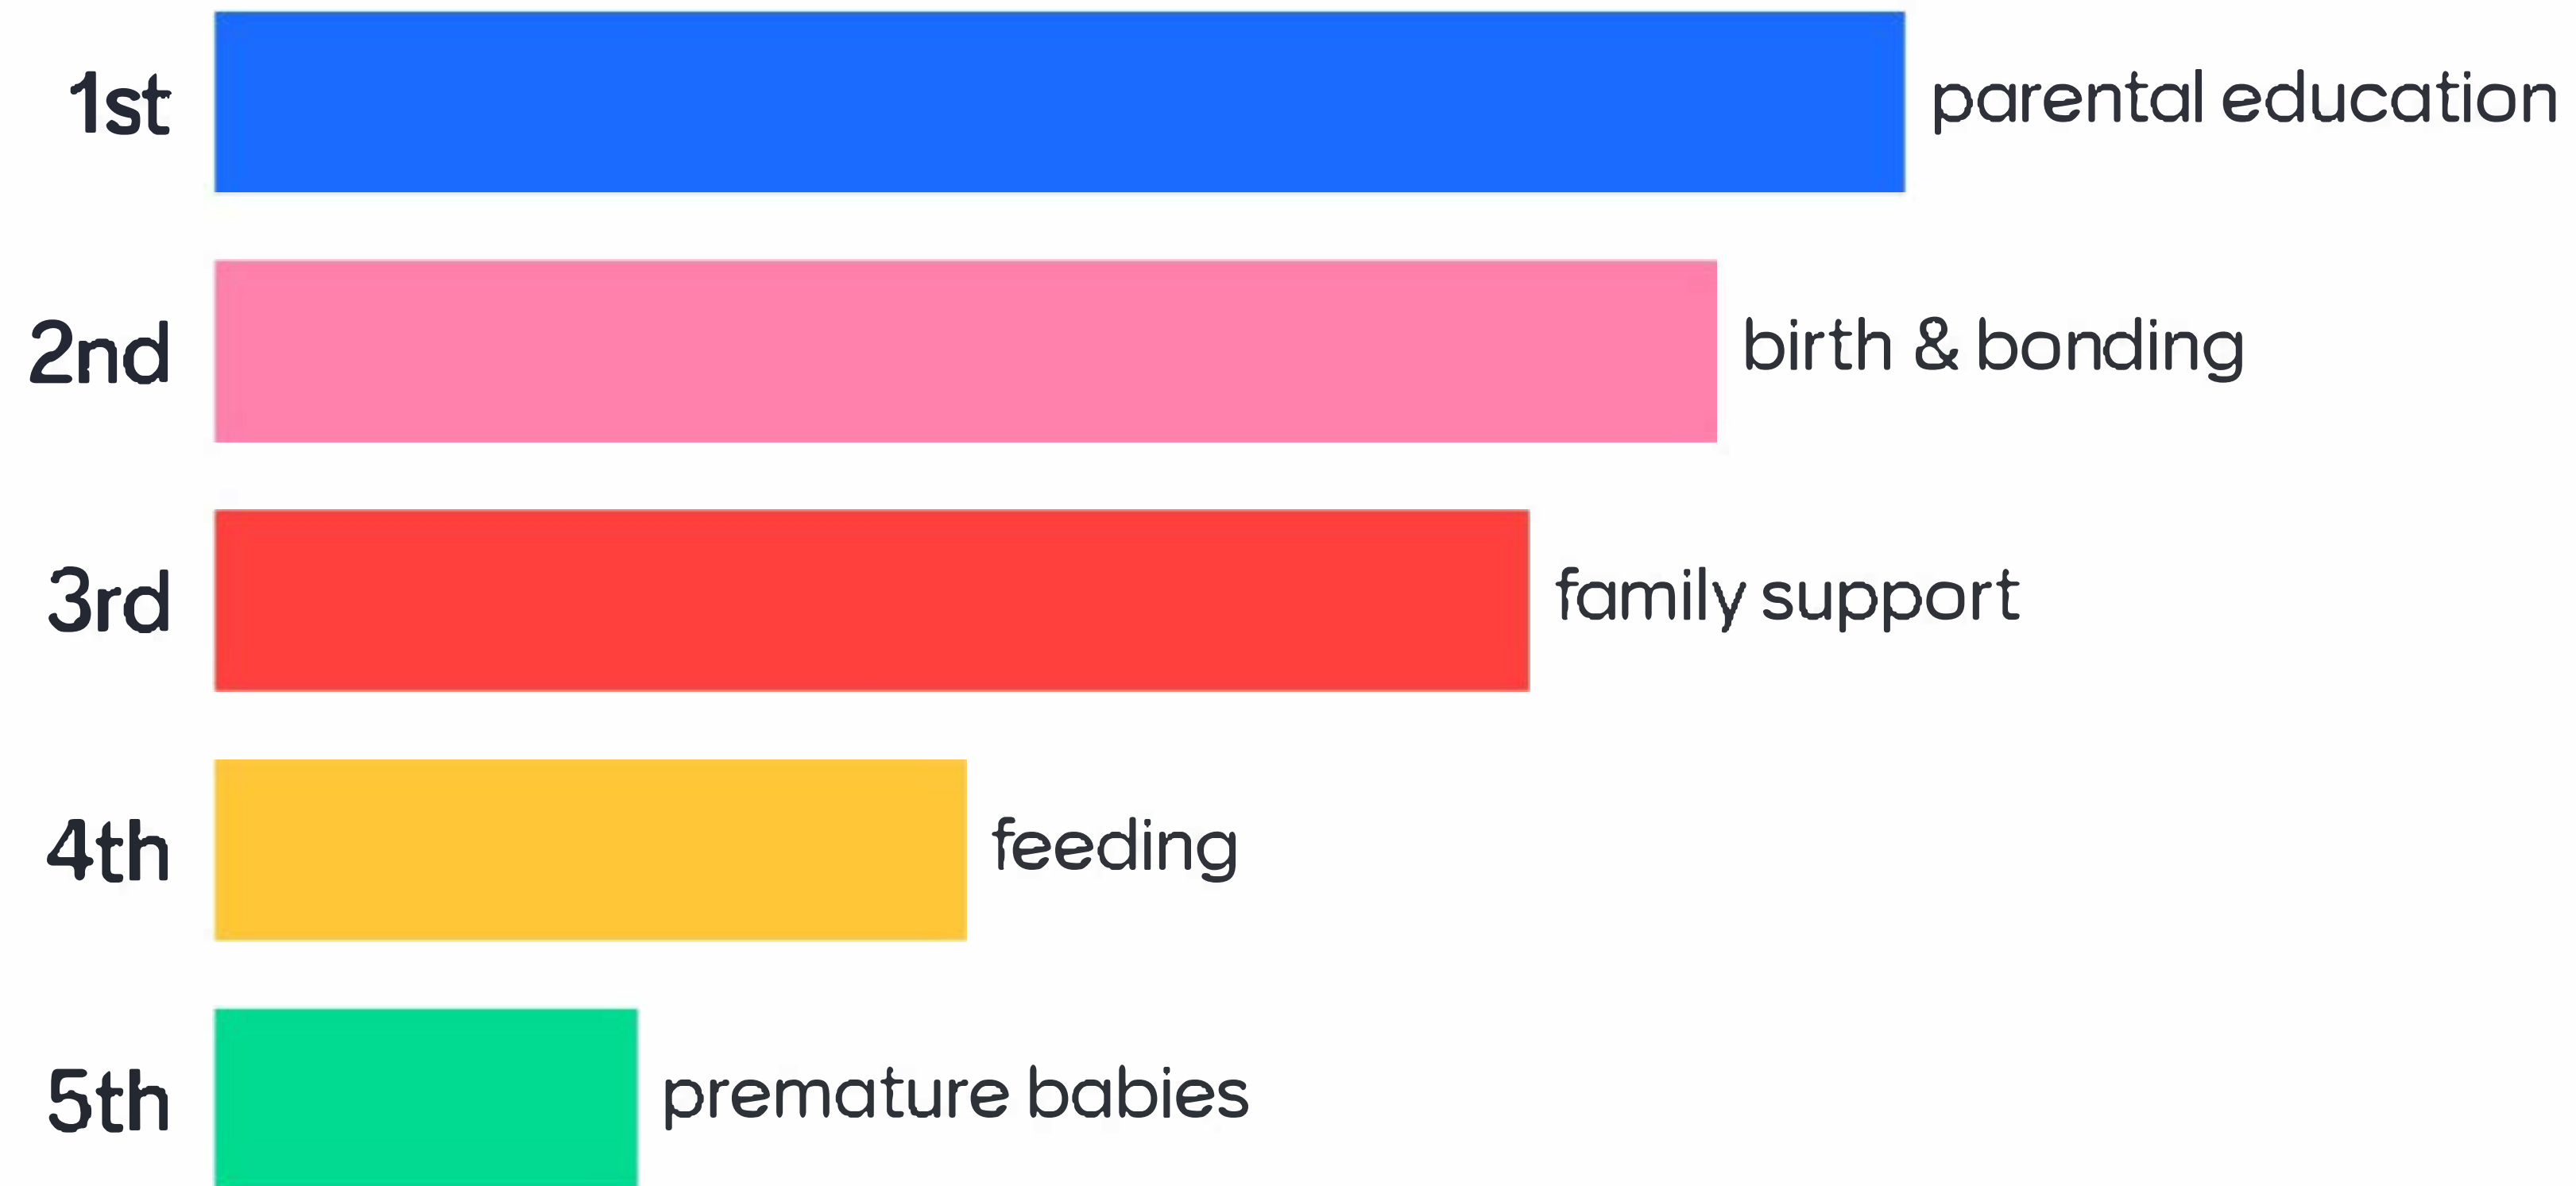

Which moments should we look at in depth in the reproductive health journey? (young women)

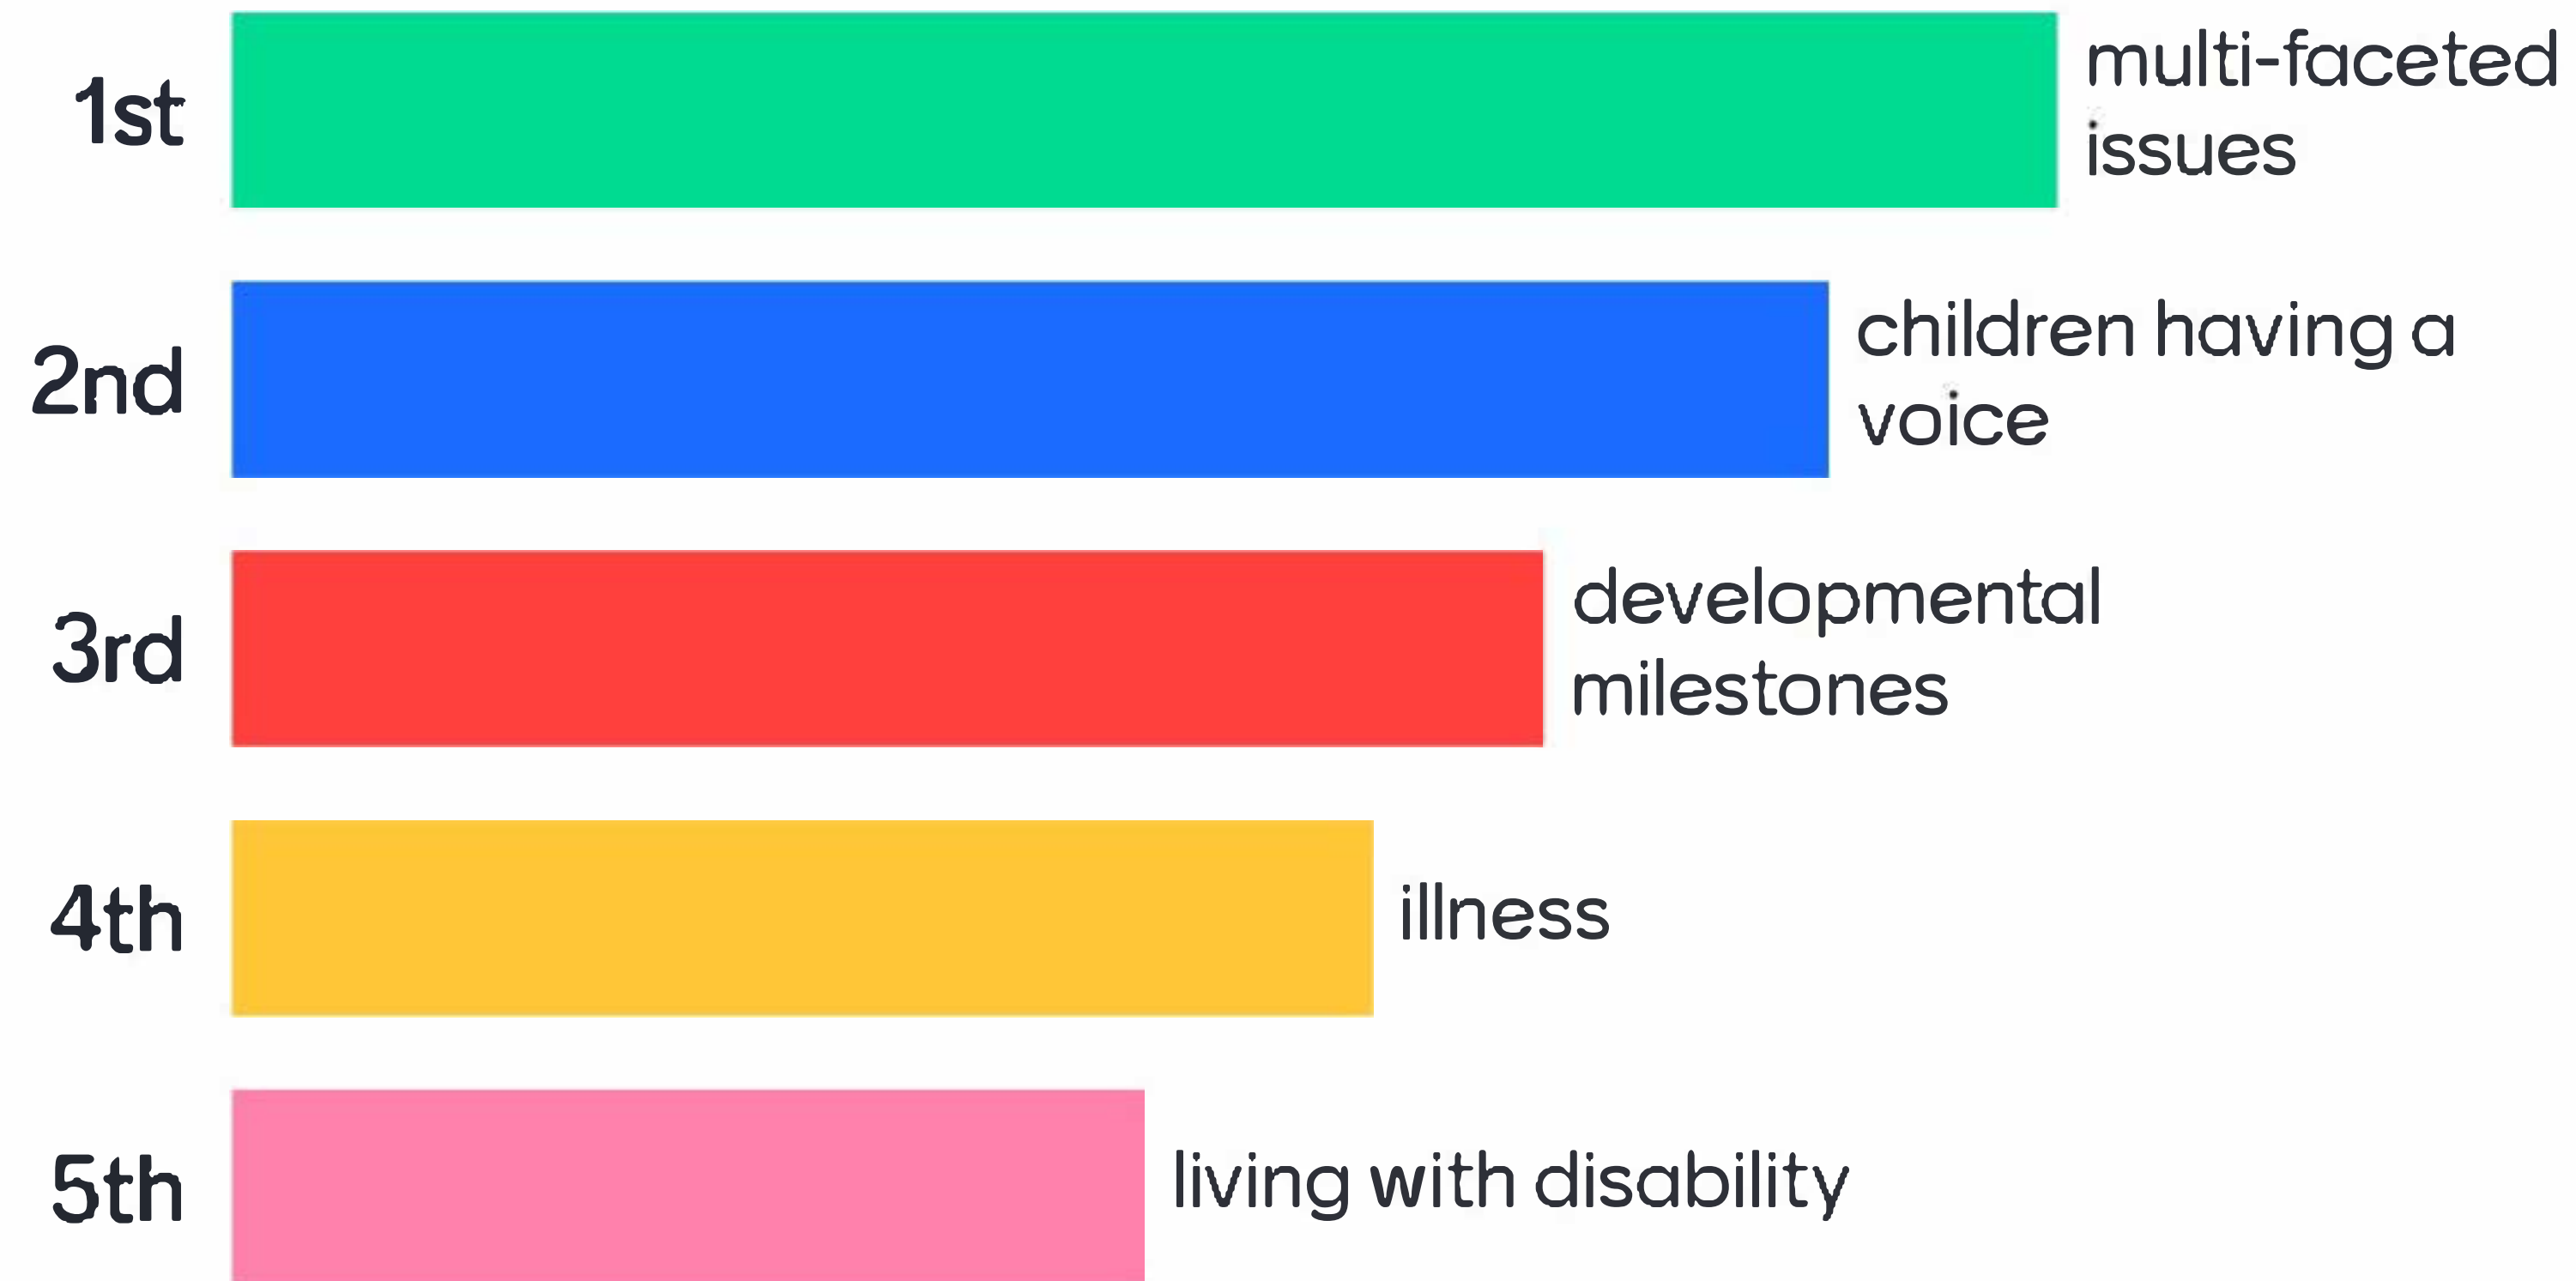

Which moments should we look at in depth in the maternal health journey?

Which moments should we look at in depth in the newborn health journey?

Which moments should we look at in depth in children's health journeys?

Which moments should we look at in depth in young people's health journeys?

Which moments should we look at in depth in the reproductive health journey? (older women)

What is your key message to the staff forum on Thursday?

Provide information and options to consumers then allow time to discuss and negotiate their choices of service and methods of delivery Then support and facilitate this