

CARE Service

Making care better together for older people

WELCOME TO OUR SERVICE

You called 000 today because you needed help. We aim to give that help without you needing to go to an Emergency Department. Hopefully this means that you can return home sooner. We are part of the health team specialising in care for older people. We are based at the Repat Health Precinct.

How can we help?

We provide a free same day service, including assessment by a doctor specialising in older people. Our service is available between 8am and 10pm, 7 days a week. We aim to return you home today but, if more medically appropriate, we arrange transfer to a hospital.

What to expect from our visit?

We work with you to understand what help you need today.

Please tell us if you're feeling worse or if you're worried about anything during your time with us. In an Emergency, press the red button on the wall.

Our specialist team includes doctors, nurses, physiotherapists, occupational therapists, and social workers.

What if I need an interpreting service or support as an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander?

We access free telephone interpreting services in many languages. We also offer the telephone services of our Aboriginal Hospital Liaison Service (Karpa Ngarrattendi). Please ask.

What next?

We plan with you what to do next. Please let us know if you'd like us to involve your family or anyone else in these discussions. Your Suggested Next Steps (next page) will be completed.

Any questions or concerns after you leave?
