

Waiting is not an emergency.

Let us treat the people who need it most, first.

What you can't see from the waiting area is everything else that happens in an Emergency Department.

Here, lives depend on us treating the people who need it most, first.

If your condition is less critical you will be cared for, but may have to wait a little longer. While that can be frustrating, turning it into another emergency isn't helping anyone.

sahealth.sa.gov.au/LetUsCare

Government
of South Australia

SA Health