

Information for patients

Mount Barker District Soldiers' Memorial Hospital

Set in the beautiful Adelaide Hills, the Mount Barker District Soldiers' Memorial Hospital provides a comprehensive range of medical, surgical and obstetric service options for patients. More than 60 doctors and specialists provide services at the hospital which include general medicine, surgery, oncology and gynaecology.

A range of allied health and community health services is available to patients if needed. There is a new maternity wing and x-ray facilities available on site. The adjacent Summit Health Centre offers a range of outpatient specialist medical services, a GPcare Clinic and a chemist. A bakery/café is nearby.
